Divani & Mantovani

Space is precious, but comfort should never be compromised. Divani and Mantovani bring exceptional comfort to compact spaces, with each module measuring just 61 cm (24”) wide.

Designed to combine the comfort of a recliner with the versatility of a modular sofa, both models feature a smooth comfort mechanism and a supportive headrest. Choose between power seats with adjustable power headrest and footrest, or fixed seats with a manual headrest.

The difference between the two models is in the details. Mantovani features slimmer armrests and refined baseball stitching on the seat, back and armrests, adding a distinctive, handcrafted touch. Divani has a slightly fuller, more classic armrest.

For added comfort and convenience, both sofas can be equipped with a centre arm with cupholders or a storage console with integrated charging.

Compact, versatile and effortlessly comfortable, Divani and Mantovani are equally at home in the living room or as a dedicated home theatre sofa – perfect for movie nights, relaxing evenings or simply putting your feet up at the end of the day.
